

St Barnabas College presents:
Widely respected Biblical Scholar,
Dr Stephen Barton

Dr Barton, originally from Australia, is an Honorary Fellow, and formerly a Reader in New Testament, in the Department of Theology and Religion, University of Durham. He is also an ordained priest of the Church of England. His speciality is in New Testament studies, having a broad range of interest in areas such as:

- Christian Origins
- New Testament Interpretation
- Resurrection theology
- Theology of the family
- The Bible and Ethics

‘The Resurrection and Practical Theology: Death and Dying in Christ’

‘In the faith of Christians, the death and resurrection of Jesus is the defining revelation of the power of God bringing a new world into being. Reality is transformed. Its shape is love. The lecture explores the meaning of the resurrection and its significance for the moral life. In particular, it gives attention to the impact of resurrection faith on the Christian practice of death and dying. In the process, it takes us to the heart of Christian living.’

This public lecture is open to all and will be held on Thursday the 13th of July, at St Bartholomew’s Anglican Church, 77 Beulah Rd, Norwood, from 7:30pm.

Light refreshments will be provided.

Encouraging people to know and love God through learning in community

